

Oxford Owl reading books

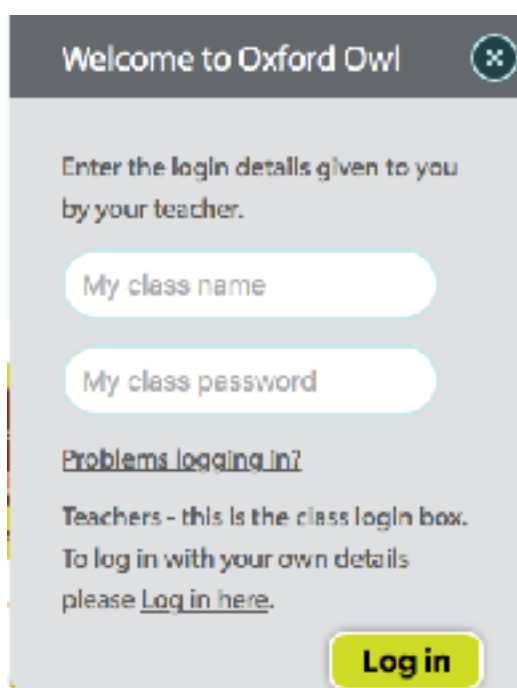

Step 1 - Go to the Oxford Owl website

Step 2 - Click on 'My class login'

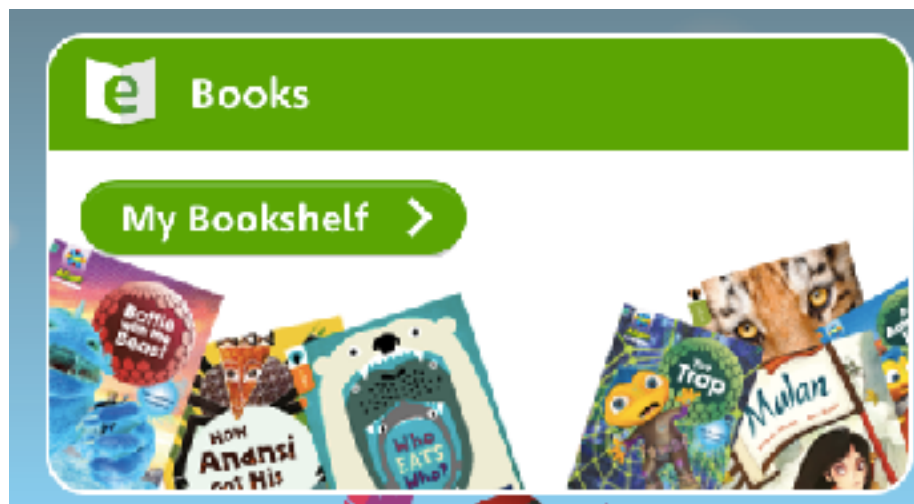

Step 3 - Type the username elmerSBS and the password Elmer to login

A screenshot of a login page. At the top, a dark gray header contains the text 'Welcome to Oxford Owl' and a close button icon. Below the header, the text 'Enter the login details given to you by your teacher.' is displayed. There are two input fields: the first is labeled 'My class name' and the second is labeled 'My class password'. Below the input fields, there is a link that says 'Problems logging in?'. Further down, there is a note: 'Teachers - this is the class login box. To log in with your own details please Log in here.' At the bottom right, there is a yellow 'Log in' button.

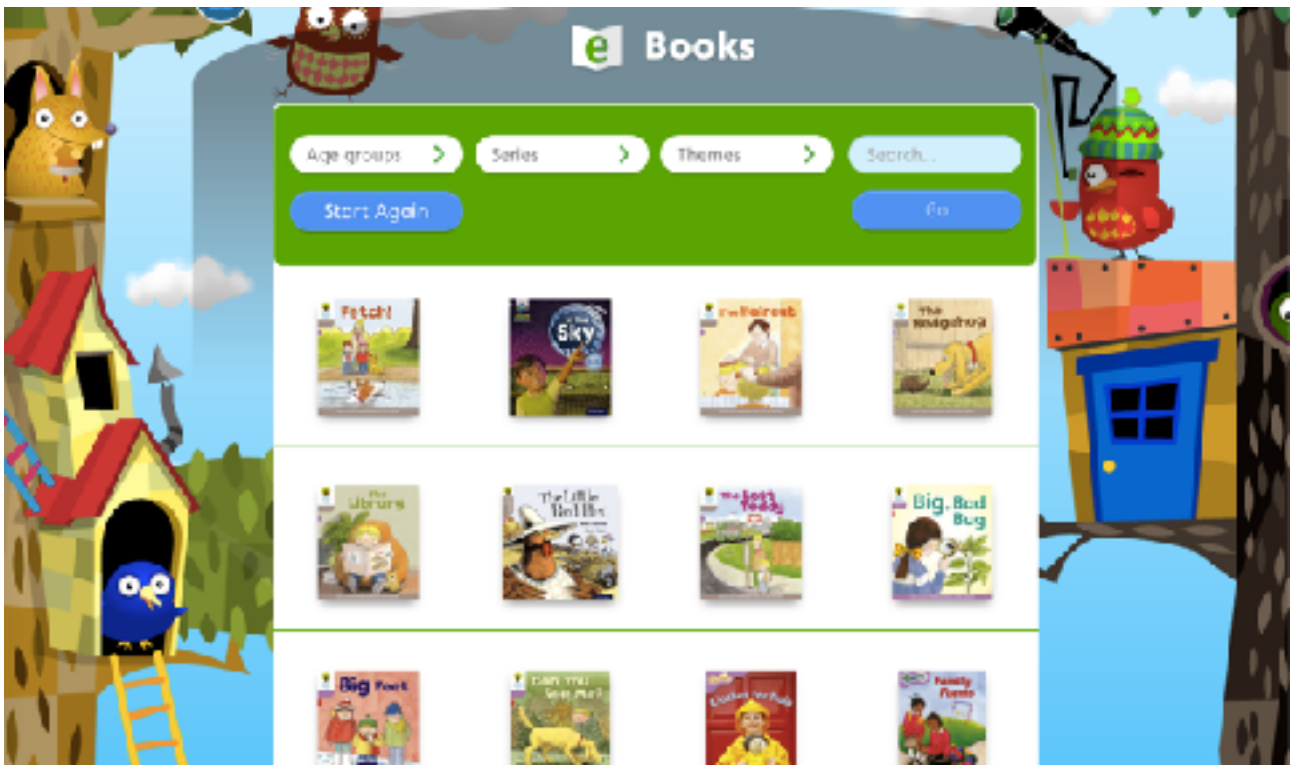

You will then be taken to this page.

Step 4 - Click on 'My Bookshelf'

You will then be taken to this page where you can filter then choose a book to read.

Some of the Oxford Owl books are colour coded (at the back), which match up with the colours that our books at school are grouped into. Some of the books are from Read, Write Inc., these books follow a different colour code to the Oxford Owl one, but they will still be useful to read.
